The 2010 English Standards of Learning Curriculum Framework is a companion document to the 2010 English Standards of Learning and amplifies the English Standards of Learning by defining the content knowledge, skills, and understandings that are measured by the Standards of Learning assessments. The Curriculum Framework provides additional guidance to school divisions and their teachers as they develop an instructional program appropriate for their students. It assists teachers in their lesson planning by identifying essential understandings, defining essential content knowledge, and describing the intellectual skills students need to use. This supplemental framework delineates in greater specificity the content that all teachers should teach and all students should learn.

Each topic in the English Standards of Learning Curriculum Framework is developed around the Standards of Learning. The format of the Curriculum Framework facilitates teacher planning by identifying the key concepts, knowledge, and skills that should be the focus of instruction for each standard. The Curriculum Framework is divided into three columns: Understanding the Standard; Essential Understandings; and Essential Knowledge, Skills and Processes. The purpose of each column is explained below.

Understanding the Standard
This section includes background information for the teacher. It contains content that may extend the teachers’ knowledge of the standard beyond the current grade level. This section may also contain suggestions and resources that will help teachers plan lessons focusing on the standard.

Essential Understandings
This section delineates the key concepts and ideas that all students should grasp to demonstrate an understanding of the Standards of Learning. These essential understandings are presented to facilitate teacher planning.

Essential Knowledge, Skills, and Processes
Each standard is expanded in the Essential Knowledge, Skills, and Processes column. What each student should know and be able to do in each standard is outlined. This is not meant to be an exhaustive list nor a list that limits what is taught in the classroom. It is meant to identify the key knowledge, skills, and processes that define the standard.

The Curriculum Framework serves as a guide for Standards of Learning assessment development. Assessment items may not and should not be a verbatim reflection of the information presented in the Curriculum Framework. Students are expected to continue to apply knowledge, skills, and processes from Standards of Learning presented in previous grades as they build expertise in English.
At the twelfth-grade level, students will use organizational skills, audience awareness, appropriate vocabulary and grammar, and verbal and nonverbal presentation skills to plan and deliver an effective formal oral presentation. Students will use a variety of listening skills to evaluate oral presentations. In addition, students will examine media messages for their objectivity, subjectivity, and effects on the audience.
12.1 The student will make a formal oral presentation in a group or individually.
   a) Choose the purpose of the presentation.
   b) Choose vocabulary, language, and tone appropriate to the audience, topic, and purpose.
   c) Use details, illustrations, statistics, comparisons, and analogies to support the presentation.
   d) Use media, visual literacy, and technology skills to create and support the presentation.
   e) Use grammatically correct language, including vocabulary appropriate to the topic, audience, and purpose.
   f) Collaborate and report on small group learning activities.
   g) Evaluate formal presentations including personal, digital, visual, textual, and technological.
   h) Use a variety of listening strategies to analyze relationships among purpose, audience, and content of presentations.
   i) Critique effectiveness of presentations.

| Students will develop skills in preparing and delivering formal oral presentations. To this end, they will develop skills in identifying a purpose, researching topics, developing content, and delivering presentations. | All students should
- recognize that the major purposes of speeches include exposition, persuasion, inspiration, entertainment, or recognition of special occasions (e.g., acceptance, welcome, or thank-you speeches).
- understand that semantics involves words and word order specifically chosen for the meaning intended.
- recognize rhetoric as the art of persuasion, especially using devices such as repetition, parallelism, and rhetorical question. | To be successful with this standard, students are expected to
- make a 5-10 minute oral presentation alone and/or as part of a group.
- organize and develop a speech, using steps in the process such as:
- selection of a topic related to audience and situation;
- determination of purpose;
- research;
- development of an outline, including introduction, body, and conclusion;
- practice; and
- presentation.
- choose appropriate vocabulary, language, and tone for the selected topic, purpose, context, and audience.
- develop content through inclusion of:
- a combination of facts and/or statistics;
- examples;
- illustrations;
- anecdotes and narratives;
- reference to experts;
- quotations;
- analogies and comparisons; and
- logical argumentation of their reasoning.
- use effective delivery created through a combination of:
- clear purpose;

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES

To be successful with this standard, students are expected to:

- organize knowledge and display learning using visual images, text, graphics, and/or music to create media messages with visual, audio, and graphic effects.
- evaluate visual and verbal media messages for content (word choice and choice of information), intent (persuasive techniques), impact (public opinion trends), and effectiveness (effect on the audience).
- determine author’s purpose and distinguish factual content from opinion and possible bias.
- analyze and critique how media reach the targeted audience for specific purposes (to persuade, to entertain, to push to action, to appeal to ethics or beliefs, etc.).
- identify fact and opinion in media messages and how those elements relate to purpose and audience.
At the twelfth-grade level, students will apply knowledge of word origins, derivations, and figurative language to extend vocabulary development in authentic texts. They will analyze British literature and literature of other cultures with emphasis on the many classic works that may be studied. In addition, students will read nonfiction and technical texts and continue to develop their own reading-process skills. Students will apply these reading skills in other content areas, including history and social science, science, and mathematics. When selecting texts, teachers will consider appropriateness of subject and theme as well as text complexity.
12.3 The student will apply knowledge of word origins, derivations, and figurative language to extend vocabulary development in authentic texts.

a) Use structural analysis of roots, affixes, synonyms, antonyms, and cognates to understand complex words.

b) Use context, structure, and connotations to determine meanings of words and phrases.

c) Discriminate between connotative and denotative meanings and interpret the connotation.

d) Identify the meaning of common idioms, literary and classical allusions in text.

e) Expand general and specialized vocabulary through speaking, reading, and writing.

f) Use knowledge of the evolution, diversity, and effects of language to comprehend and elaborate the meaning of texts.

UNDERSTANDING THE STANDARD

Teacher Notes

- Students will understand how British literature has influenced and has been influenced by the literature of other cultures.

- Students will trace and examine the development of British literature and the literature of other cultures by recognizing characteristics of chronological periods and literary techniques. Students will relate literary works and their authors to major themes and issues.

- Students will understand that critical evaluation is the process of judging the merit or value of a piece of literature and that the process includes evaluating the author’s effectiveness in integrating component parts to create a whole.

- A complete list of literary devices is found in Essential Knowledge, Skills, and Processes column for SOL 9.4.

- Close reading entails close observation of the text, including annotating, determining all word meanings including connotations, syntax, and structure. It also involves paying close attention to figures of speech, and other features that contribute to a writer’s style. Close reading also

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES

To be successful with this standard, students are expected to

- use reading strategies to improve comprehension and to achieve the purposes for reading: predicting and adjusting predictions; questioning the text; restating main ideas and summarizing supporting details; and close reading.

- analyze texts to identify the author’s attitudes, viewpoints, and beliefs and critique how these relate to larger historical, social, and cultural contexts.

- analyze the representation of a subject or a key scene in two different media.

- identify the literary characteristics of specific eras, such as:
  - Anglo-Saxon/Medieval period;
  - Tudor/Renaissance period;
  - Neoclassical period;
  - Restoration Age;
  - Romantic and Victorian periods; and
  - Modern and Postmodern periods.

- recognize major themes and issues related to:
  - religious diversity;
  - political struggles;
  - ethnic and cultural mores and traditions; and
  - individual rights, gender equity, and civil rights.

UNDERSTANDING THE STANDARD

(teacher notes)

- The intent of this standard is that students will develop skill in creating expository, technical, and persuasive/argumentative writings.

- Persuasive techniques are defined under SOL 12.5.

- Students should have practice writing for shorter time frames as well as extended time frames.

ESSENTIAL UNDERSTANDINGS

All students should

- understand that writing is a process.
- locate and select appropriate information that clearly supports a definite purpose and position.
- understand that format (structure) determines the sequence of a writing.
- understand that vocabulary is used to develop voice and tone for a specific audience, purpose, or situation.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES

To be successful with this standard, students are expected to

- develop expository writings that:
  - explain their ideas through a clear general statement of the writer’s point (thesis);
  - use specific evidence and illustrations; and
  - provide concise and accurate information.

- develop technical writings (e.g., personal data sheet, résumé, job description, questionnaire, job application, or business communication) that address a clearly identified audience and have a clearly identified purpose.

- complete employment forms through simulations and real-life opportunities.

- complete applications, essays, and résumés for college admission through simulations and real-life opportunities.

- develop analytical essays that do one or more of the following:
  - examine a process;
  - make a comparison;
  - propose solutions;
  - classify;
  - define;
  - show cause and effect;
  - illustrate problems; and
  - evaluate.

- construct arguments that:
  - introduce precise, substantive claims;

Students will understand and apply mechanics, usage, and grammar conventions to prepare writing for intended audiences.

Students will understand that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and is sometimes contested.

Students will use a style manual, such as MLA or APA, to apply punctuation rules and the formatting of quotations in documented papers.
At the twelfth-grade level, students will produce well-documented research papers, using a standard method of documentation, such as MLA or APA. Students will critically evaluate the accuracy, quality, and validity of all information and follow ethical and legal guidelines for using and gathering information.

g) Edit writing for language, spelling, capitalization, syntax, and paragraphing as appropriate for standard English.
h) Define the meaning and consequences of plagiarism and follow ethical and legal guidelines for gathering and using information.

UNDERSTANDING THE STANDARD

(Notes for Teachers)

- Students will research topics and develop documented papers that support a thesis. A documented paper is the result of following a process leading to discovery of information that is then synthesized to support a focus on a particular topic through content, style, structure, and presentation.

- Students will recognize consequences of plagiarism according to the guidelines established by school divisions or post-secondary schools.

ESSENTIAL UNDERSTANDINGS

- All students should
  - understand how to gather information and analyze it to organize and begin the writing process.
  - understand the ethical issues and responsibility of documentation in research writings.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES

To be successful with this standard, students are expected to

- identify and narrow a topic for research through a variety of strategies, such as mapping, listing, brainstorming, webbing, and using an Internet search engine.
- utilize technology to conduct research, organize information, and develop writing.
- collect, evaluate, analyze and synthesize relevant information, using a variety of primary and secondary print and electronic sources.
- evaluate collected information from print and electronic sources by:
  - determining its validity, accuracy, credibility, reliability, consistency, strengths and limitations; and
  - formulating a reason/focus to represent findings.
- record and organize information into a draft by:
  - prioritizing and synthesizing information;
  - summarizing and/or paraphrasing information; and
  - selecting direct quotations.
- cite print or electronic sources of information to avoid plagiarism when paraphrasing, summarizing, quoting, or inserting graphics, using MLA or APA style.
